

ABOUT KANSAS CITY

Kansas City is brimming with unique and unexpected adventures that will make your time here special—eclectic cuisine, energetic jazz, one-of-a-kind museums, a thriving arts scene and fantastic shopping.

Part of Kansas City's charm lies in its beauty, which includes an impressive network of boulevards, parks and of course, fountains. The city's location in the center of the country makes it easy to get here, and our reasonable prices make fun so affordable. Thanks to their Midwestern hospitality, it's guaranteed that once you arrive, you'll be greeted with a smile.

GETTING AROUND DOWNTOWN KANSAS CITY

The Kansas City Streetcar—Totally free to ride whether you need to go just one stop or the full length of the tracks, the Kansas City Streetcar is the best way to get around downtown. The two-mile route runs from Crown Center in Midtown Kansas City to the River Market District on the bank of the Missouri River. It makes sixteen stops from end to end and operates from 6 a.m. through midnight Monday-Thursday and 6 a.m. to 2 a.m. on Friday, 7 a.m. to 2 a.m. on Saturday and 7 a.m. until 11 p.m. on Sundays.

Thanks to its stops in some of the most popular neighborhoods, enjoying restaurants, bars, and art galleries has never been easier. Walk on and off at your leisure.

POINTS OF INTEREST

There is so much to see and do in Kansas City. Listed below are some SUGGESTED attractions. For more ideas, contact Kansas City Convention & Visitors Bureau at www.visitkc.com or call (816) 691-3800. Additional information will be available at the hotel upon arrival.

AREA ATTRACTIONS

COUNTRY CLUB PLAZA

This 14-block outdoor shopping and entertainment district is filled with romantic Spanish architecture, European art and dazzling fountains. It is KC's premier retail, restaurant and entertainment center, offering more than 120 outstanding shops and restaurants. The Plaza is a favorite destination throughout the year, but perhaps more so during the holiday season, when miles of holiday lights outline the Spanish architecture. Nothing beats an evening horse-drawn carriage ride on the Plaza, snuggled under blankets, followed by a warm nightcap at any of the Plaza's great restaurants and coffee bars.

POWER AND LIGHTS DISTRICT

Home to more than 50 bars, restaurants and shops, the Kansas City Power & Light District is an eight-block entertainment hub unlike any other in town. KC Live!—the district's covered outdoor courtyard—hosts more than 150 free events each year. Fans gather here to cheer on their favorite squads, be it the Kansas City Royals, Kansas City Chiefs, Sporting Kansas City or one of the many teams playing in the Big 12 Men's Basketball Championship. Across the street you'll find one of the country's busiest arenas, the glittering Sprint Center.

KANSAS CITY BARBECUE & JAZZ

Kansas City offers more than 100 barbecue restaurants, from legends like Gates and Arthur Bryant's to smaller, local favorites. A trip to KC would not be complete without trying the infamous Kansas City Ribs. Kansas City once played jazz for all the world. Check out the intersection immortalized in song at the Goin' to Kansas City Plaza at 12th Street & Vine. Just up the street, the 18th & Vine Historic Jazz District still swings to the sound of the American Jazz Museum.

CITY OF FOUNTAINS

With more than 200 fountains, Kansas City boasts more fountains than any other city except maybe Rome. Don't forget your camera!
